

Pin-Up Girl, Greaser and Kids Contest
Rules And Registration Information
Aviation Museum of Santa Paula

This event is meant to be family friendly, fun, and not at all provocative. It open to all ages and sexes. To goal is to allow contestants to have fun expressing themselves in themed attire that matches the era of many of our aircraft exhibits in The Aviation Museum of Santa Paula.

Adult (Pin-Up and Greaser) must be 18 and over.

$10 Entry Fee taken upon registration to contest

By entering, you automatically agree that your images or pictures can be used or featured in future advertisement, post promotions, and future event promotion. Your entry is a photo release for The Aviation Museum of Santa Paula to use those images.

Contestants must be signed up, fees must be paid and ready to compete by 11:00 am.

The top 3 Winners will receive prizes: TBD

HOW THE CONTEST IS CONDUCTED

Winner will be chosen based on a panel judges.

Judging will be done in four categories. The first being "Attire", the second being "Personality" third being "Crowd Response" and fourth "Questions".

Each contestant will come out on stage individually while the announcer talks about them to the audience (according to the info they have provided on the bio).

REQUIREMENTS / RULES

Contestants can only wear one outfit - there are no outfit changes.

The contest will be held within a family show with children in the audience.

No nudity of any kind will be tolerated.

Contestants are to provide their own attire (bring an additional outfit in case of the need to change), hair and make-up.

Appropriate Attire and Conduct:

AMSP reserves the right to have any contestant change into an alternate outfit (provided by the contestant) for any reason. Contestants must conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. AMSP reserves the right to remove any finalist from the contest who is performing any objectionable act which is, in the opinion of AMSP, detracting from the dignity and integrity of the contest and/or event. No vulgar language will be tolerated. Removal from contest or awards ceremony will result in the loss of any and all prizes.

We are looking for 1940's, 1950's or 1960's Classic Glamour Pin-up and Greaser themed or inspired outfits. Such as: Dresses, circle and pencil skirts, wiggle dresses, blouses, capris, high-waisted shorts. Leather jackets, rolled jeans "garage" or "shop" attire.

No exposed belly buttons or buttocks, no nudity, no flashing, no pasties, no lingerie outfits, no bikinis/thongs. Military style outfits are welcome! This is a family friendly event. Tattoos are welcomed.
